the Gallic Litavis, or the Roman Bellona. The editor's notes are full and exhaustive, though not without occasional blunders, and there are good indexes. At least until the appearance of the volume of Gallic inscriptions in the CIL, this book will be indispensable to the student of the subject. —A. H., in Lit. Centralblatt, 1890, No. 27.

MONUMENTI ANTICHI. Pubblicati per cura della Reale Accademia dei Lincei. Vol. I. Puntata I. Con 10 tav. e 83 incisioni nel testo. Folio, coll. 166. Milano, 1890; Hoepli.

This new publication—edited by a committee of the Accademia dei Lincei—is designed to serve as a supplement to the Notizie degli Scavi published monthly by the same Academy. Like the latter, it treats of all important discoveries in the field of classical archæology, epigraphy, and numismatics. Whereas the Notizie aims to give timely intelligence, in brief reports, of new discoveries as they are made, the Monumenti proposes to present to specialists, in carefully prepared essays, the results of investigations that may have extended over a long period of time, as well as to publish newly discovered monuments and to republish others hitherto inadequately published. This first puntata contains (1) a report upon the excavations of the temple of Pythian Apollon at Gortyn in Krete, by HALBHERR; (2) fragments of archaic inscriptions from the same place by COMPARETTI—which appear to fix the date of the introduction of coinage into Krete; (3) a report, by L. PIGORINI, upon excavations conducted by the writer at Fontanellato (Castellazzo) in Parma; (4) on the weight of the Etruscan pound, by G. F. GAMURRINI, based on a find of ancient weights at Chiusi (Clusium). The inscriptions discussed by Halbherr throw light on the Doric of Gortyn at about 300 B. C.: e. g., F; acc. plu. in ovs, avs, êvs and ês; κόρμος = κόσμος; πορτί = πρός. —A. H., in Lit. Centralblatt, 1890, No. 23.

S. REINACH. Chroniques d'Orient. Documents sur les fouilles et découvertes dans l'orient hellénique de 1883 à 1890. Pp. xv, 787, one plate and several cuts. Paris, 1891.

This bulky volume consists mainly of reprints of reports, which appeared from the author's hand in the Revue Archéologique, upon excavations and discoveries in Greek lands between 1883 and 1890, together with several articles upon like topics written by him for various other periodicals. The value of the original reports is greatly enhanced, not only by the index of fifty pages—with hardly less than ten thousand references—but also by the addition of many foot-notes, in which the information given in the text is brought to date, and attention is called to recent literature. These Chroniques, at first little more than meagre reports of recent finds, gradually became a complete repertory of informa-
